Important: This is a concise knowledge-base summary generated from the public Daraz Pakistan source page. It is not an official Daraz-issued PDF and should not replace the live source.

- The Marketplace Agreement defines seller obligations, Seller Center access, shipping/dispatch responsibilities and seller performance requirements.
- For applicable returns, sellers accept cases such as defective/damaged, incorrect and incomplete products, with category-specific exceptions.
- Daraz may refund customers for eligible prepaid cancellations, rejected products or returned products under the agreement.
- Seller shipping, packing and fulfilment responsibilities are governed by the agreement and related policies.
